Pinal County Medical Examiner Releases Report on Hausner's Death

PHOENIX, AZ – On June 19, the Arizona Department of Corrections began an investigation following the death of inmate Dale Hausner, 40, ADC #240702. Today, the Pinal County Medical Examiner released its report, ruling Hausner's death a suicide due to amitriptyline intoxication.

The medical examiner's report is a part of the ongoing ADC investigation into his death.

When Hausner was found unresponsive in his cell on June 19, ADC staff and medical responders attempted life-saving measures. He was transported out to Florence Hospital at Anthem, where he was ultimately pronounced deceased.

Hausner was serving a death sentence after being convicted of 80 crimes, including six counts of 1st degree murder, attempted murder, aggravated assault, cruelty to animals and other charges.

Additional information about his crimes can be found on the Arizona Department of Corrections website links below:
